Quotes List

To the Reader – Francis's Vision

"The message of Jesus is mercy. For me, and I say this with humility, it is the Lord's strongest message." – Pope Francis (ix)

"Jesus too goes beyond the law and forgives by caressing the wounds of our sins."
– Pope Francis (xiii)

Chapter 1 – A Time for Mercy

"The Bride of Christ prefers to use the medicine of mercy rather than arm herself with the weapons of rigor." – John XXIII at the opening of the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council (6)

"Mercy is in reality the core of the Gospel message; it is the name of God himself, the face with which he revealed himself in the Old Testament and fully in Jesus Christ, incarnation of Creative and Redemptive Love. This love of mercy also illuminates the face of the Church and is manifested through the Sacraments, in particular that of Reconciliation, as well as in works of charity, both of community and individuals. Everything that the Church says and does shows that God has mercy for man." – Pope Benedict XVI (7)

"Jesus saw the tax collector and, by having mercy, chose him as an Apostle, saying to him, 'Follow me.'" – Venerable Saint Bede on the calling of the Apostle Matthew (11-12)

"I go to our chapel and stand in front of the tabernacle and say to Jesus: 'Lord, forgive me if I have forgiven too much. But you're the one who gave me the bad example!'" – Capuchin priest (13)

"When Man ceases to worship God he does not worship nothing but worships everything." – G.K. Chesterton (16)

Chapter 3 – Looking for the Smallest Opening

"Search within your heart for what is pleasing to God. Your heart must be crushed...The impure heart must be destroyed so that the pure one may be created. We should be displeased with ourselves when we commit sin, for sin is displeasing to God." – Saint Augustine (31-32)

"You bent down over our wounds and healed us, giving us a medicine stronger than our afflictions, a mercy greater than our fault. In this way even sin, by virtue of your invincible love, served to elevate us to the divine life." - Preface to the Ambrosian Rite (34)

2017 Super Quiz Religion – The Name of God Is Mercy

Quotes List

Chapter 4 – A Sinner, Like Simon Peter

"Standing before you is a man who has been forgiven for his many sins..." – Pope Francis (39)

Chapter 5 – Too Much Mercy?

"He [God] waits. Always. And it is never too late. That's what he's like, that's how he is...he's a father. A father waiting at the doorway, who sees us when we are still far off, who is moved, and who comes running toward us, embraces us, and kisses us tenderly....Our sin is like a jewel that we present to him to obtain the consolation of forgiveness."

- Bishop Albino Luciano (Pope John Paul I) (51-52)

Chapter 6 – Shepherds, Not Scholars of the Law

"May God free us from bad reasons. If someone doesn't want to carry the cross, I don't know what she's still doing in the convent." – Saint Teresa of Avila (58)

"When it comes to bestowing grace, Christ is present; when it comes to exercising rigor, only the ministers of the Church are present, but Christ is absent." – Saint Ambrose (64)

"The Lord loves humility so much that sometimes he permits serious sins. Why? In order that those who committed these sins may, after repenting, remain humble. One does not feel inclined to think oneself half a saint, half an angel, when one knows that one has committed serious faults." – Pope John Paul I (70)

"God hates faults because they are faults. On the other hand, however, in a certain sense he loves faults, since they give him an opportunity to show his mercy and us an opportunity to remain humble and to understand and to sympathize with our neighbors' faults."

– Saint Francis de Sales (70)

"A small step, in the midst of great human limitations, can be more pleasing to God than a life that appears outwardly in order but moves through the day without confronting great difficulties." – Pope Francis (72)

2017 Super Quiz Religion – The Name of God Is Mercy

Quotes List

Chapter 7 – Sinners Yes, Corrupt No

"If God limited himself to only justice, he would cease to be God and would instead be like human beings who ask merely that the law be respected. But mere justice is not enough. Experience shows that an appeal to justice alone risks destroying it." – Pope Francis (77)

"God never tires of forgiving; it is we who get tired of asking him for forgiveness."
– Pope Francis (85)

Appendix - Bull of Indiction of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

"Now the Bride of Christ wishes to use the medicine of mercy rather than taking up arms of severity...The Catholic Church, as she holds high the torch of Catholic truth at this Ecumenical Council, want to show herself a loving mother to all; patient, kind, moved by compassion and goodness toward her separated children." – Saint John XXIII (109)

"It is proper to God to exercise mercy, and he manifests his omnipotence particularly in this way." – Saint Thomas Aquinas (111)

"The present-day mentality...seems opposed to a God of mercy, and in fact tends to exclude from life and to remove from the human heart the very idea of mercy."
– Saint John Paul II (121)

"It [Mercy] is dictated by love for man, for all that is human and which, according to the intuitions of many of our contemporaries, is threatened by an immense danger. The mystery of Christ...obliges me to proclaim mercy as God's merciful love, revealed in that same mystery of Christ. It likewise obliges me to have recourse to that mercy and to beg for it at this difficult, critical phase of the history of the Church and of the world." – Saint John Paul II (121-122)

"As we prepare to leave this life, we will be judged on the basis of love."
– Saint John of the Cross (129)
